

LIFE BEYOND TOURISM FOCUS ON:

COSTUME COLLOQUIUM III : PAST DRESS- FUTURE FASHION will start tomorrow at the Auditorium al Duomo (Via de 'Cerretani 54r) with the participants from over 14 countries.

The Third edition of the colloquium on the costume aims to encourage the intercultural dialogue between the participants and the city that hosts them; rich and intensive 4-day program of presentations, meetings and discussions between leading figures in the world of fashion and costume.

Read more in our magazine: What is Costume Colloquium Costume Colloquium is an international, intercultural and interdisciplinary conference where people from different cultures, countries and professions come together to examine a theme which connects them all.

This common theme is "dress", a subject to all participants can relate to on a variety of levels. Additionally, the historical and social significance of dress is examined and analyzed from both practical and theoretical perspectives. "[\[...\] Continue...](#)"
